DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1,2,4-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO 994 in view of Nguyen et al and WO 660'. Wo teaches the claimed subject matter except for showing use of chamber for the work system. However as set forth in Nguyen, it is conventional to use a chamber in a similar coating system and use of the same effectively treats the work. In view of this teaching it would have been obvious to modify the WO system to use a chamber to house the torch during the coating since use of the same will more effectively coat the work. Wo 660' is applied for evidencing that it is conventional to use a flame source to direct a nebulized solution toward a substrate and in view of this teaching it would have been obvious to modify the Wo 994' system further to use the flame source directed at the substrate as in Wo 660' , instead of directing the nebulizer at the substrate, no patentable effect set forth by either method. Note that Wo 660 teaches that gases and metering valves can be used in the multiple injection nozzles 16, see page 8 first paragraph, and thus the structure of claim 9 is set forth.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO 994 in view of Nguyen and Wo 660' as applied to claims 1,2,4-18 above, and further in view of WO 316'.

In view of Wo 316' showing use of a mixer at the outlet of the reservoirs as conventional and beneficial to the coating process, it would have been obvious to modify the Wo 994' system with the same , to enhance to quality of the thermal spray system.

Conclusion

Conclusion

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-18 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
